FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
February 19, 2019

The organization that brought you the NEW Milwaukee Flag celebrates 10 years with Experience AIGA WI: Your Tribe for Design.

Featuring a keynote address from AIGA Medalist and National Board President Dana Arnett; and a state of the chapter presentation from Chapter President Drew Lettner.

Milwaukee - AIGA Wisconsin, a nonprofit membership network, will be opening the doors to one of Milwaukee's newest premier event spaces—Venue 42—for an all-out celebration of everything design and their 10 years in the community. AIGA members and non-members alike are welcome to attend on the evening of March 7th from 6pm until 9pm. Tickets for the event range from free (for AIGA members) up to $30 for non-members at the door. Students may attend for $5 by showing their student ID on arrival. The evening will consist of interactive networking games, exclusive food, drinks, prizes and more—all to pay homage to membership in AIGA and what it means to be part of the creative community.

Non-members will be able to explore the benefits of membership in AIGA and the community you can create with fellow designers and creative enthusiasts. Becoming a member of this organization doesn't just connect you with professionals within the local community, it opens you to a vast network of thousands of creative professionals nationwide. Hosted by Milwaukee native Xavier Ruffin, the fun will be in no short supply as attendees are treated to a preview of AIGA's upcoming calendar of events scored to a soundtrack provided by DJ Dripsweat.

AIGA Wisconsin is one of 73 chapters in the national network of AIGA, the Professional Association for Design. The mission of AIGA is to advance design as a professional craft, strategic tool for businesses and a vital cultural force.

Further details about this event can be found on the Eventbrite registration page.
